

Writing - Write a short newspaper article announcing Queen Victoria's coronation.
Challenge: use paragraphs, quotes, an introduction and a conclusion in your report.

Research - create a poster to show some research you have done about life in the Victorian times.
Challenge: What can you do to make your poster more interesting for the reader?

Geography - where did the Victorians go on holiday? What was it like?
Challenge: Think of an exciting way to share this research with others.

PSHE - If you were Queen Victoria what new laws would you make and why?
Challenge: Write a persuasive argument about why your laws would be good for the whole country.

Food - Find out some foods the Victorians liked to eat and use these to design a menu for a Victorian dinner.
Challenge: Is this a healthy meal? Why or why not?

Games - Create an outdoor game for Victorian children to play and write the instructions for this.
Challenge: Teach others your game at a break or lunchtime.

Construction - Make a 3D model representing an object from Victorian times.
Challenge: Make a short description card to accompany your model, detailing why the object was important/ how it was used.

Art - Draw or paint a picture of a scene from the Victorian times e.g. Queen Victoria on the throne, a poor family eating dinner.
Challenge: Can you use different materials to create your scene?

Computing - Make a Powerpoint presentation about a famous person in Victorian times.
Challenge: Consider how you can add images, animations, backgrounds and links to make your presentation more engaging.

History - Make your own Victorian timeline showing the key events in the Victorian times.
Challenge: Calculate the time differences between the different events.

Handwriting - Research Victorian handwriting and practise having a go at some of your own.
Challenge: Plan a lesson where you teach others how to do the handwriting. What challenges could you set your classmates?

Owls Class' Home Learning Autumn 2019

Due: Wednesday 18th December

Other Things You Could Do (and bring a photo, written description or souvenir)

- Make a cardboard person and design some Victorian clothes for it
- Make a Victorian recipe
- Visit the Charles Burrell museum in Thetford
- Visit Moyse's Hall Museum in Bury St Edmunds (there's lots of different information here ~ what can you find from the Victorian times?)
- Visit Melford Hall in Long Melford to see some Victorian décor in some of the rooms and some work of Beatrix Potter, who was born in the Victorian times
- Create a puppet show, write a script for this and you could even perform it to the class!
